

Commercial & Industrial Water Tanks

Panthers Concrete Tanks offer expert concrete water storage solutions for all commercial and industrial applications. Each tank can be tailored specifically to your requirements.

Quality Concrete Tank Solutions

Our expert tank construction service features:

- Over 25 years trade experience in tank construction for the mining industry
- Standard tanks sizes from 4,000 to 4 million litres
- Custom sizes available for 1 million litres +
- Storage solutions for water and chemical options
- Custom design options available to suit your needs or site requirements
- Quality workmanship to Australian standards

Tailored Tank Solutions

All our commercial concrete tanks can be constructed to any site requirements with features including:

- Anti-buoyancy
- Partitions in tanks
- Pits in base of tanks
- Sloping floors
- Trafficable lids to take any size load
- Buried deep underground
- Heavy vehicle loading
- Access ladders supplied
- Gattic manholes & risers supplied

Standard Compliant

Panthers Concrete Tanks are constructed to meet Australian quality standards including AS3735 – Concrete Structures for Retaining Liquids and AS3600 – Concrete Structures.

Constructing tanks at mining sites around Australia

No matter where your site is located, the Panther Concrete Tanks specialist mining construction team will travel Australia wide to bring you our unrivalled quality and service.