

Large Industrial Water Tanks

Do you require a water storage solution for upwards of 1 million litres?

Panthers Concrete Tanks offer expert concrete water storage solutions for all large industrial applications. Our large concrete tanks can be constructed to any diameter and height your project requires.

Our large concrete tanks can be constructed for any purpose, examples include concrete reservoir, water storage, fire fighting, sewage holding, sewage treatment, waste treatment, oil and sludge holding tanks, settlement tanks, onsite detention tanks and irrigation tanks.

Large Scale, High Quality Concrete Tanks... Any height & diameter

Our expert tank construction service features:

- Over 25 years trade experience in custom design and construction of large concrete tanks
- Custom sizes available for 1 million litres and up
- Quality workmanship to Australian Standards
- Above and below ground construction
- Any height and diameter required

All our large industrial size concrete tanks can be constructed to any site requirement with features including:

- Anti-buoyancy
- Partitions in tanks
- Pits in base of tanks
- Sloping floors
- Trafficable lids to take any size load
- Buried deep underground
- Heavy vehicle loading
- Access ladders supplied
- Gattic manholes & risers supplied

Standard Compliance

Panthers Concrete Tanks are constructed to meet Australian quality standards including AS3735 – Concrete Structures for Retaining Liquids and AS3600 – Concrete Structures.

Australia Wide

The Panthers Tanks construction team will travel Australia wide to bring you our unrivalled quality and service.

